

Meet our Piano Instructor

Michael Ramos

Michael Ramos is a graduate of Florida Southern College, where he received his Bachelor's in Music Performance. An avid composer, his works contain pieces for soloists, chamber, and large ensembles.

He developed his passion for music as assistant conductor for the Florida Southern College Choral Department and principal keyboardist for the Florida Southern College Symphony Orchestra.

His many collaborations with various soloists and ensembles include the Imperial Symphony Orchestra and the Lakeland Choral Society. He is also a brother of the music fraternity of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, where he has held multiple leadership roles.