

Meet our Guitar Instructor

Yegues Schettini

Yegues Schettini holds a Bachelor's degree in Instrumental Music Education and Flute Performance from Florida State University. He has been involved with music starting in 5th grade and has consistently taught classrooms, master classes, and private lessons since high school along with numerous solo and ensemble performances.

Yegues is currently the guitar teacher at Ocoee High School, and within one year developed the program from 3 guitar classes to a full load of 7 guitar classes ranging from beginning to advanced players. He is also the guitarist for a local band.