

Meet our Voice & Piano Instructor

Jamile S. Evaristo

Jamile began her musical studies at the music school of the First Baptist Church of Penha in São Paulo/Brazil at the age of 15, where she studied piano, singing, and conducting. At the age of 19, she decided to enter the University of Singing where she completed her Bachelor's Degree in Music, specializing in voice at Uni FAAM-Faculdade de Artes Alcântara Machado in 2003.

She was a member and founder of the group "Opera Portátil", where she performed as a soloist in multiple operas and other major pieces. She participated in international tours and music festivals, singing in Poland, United States, Canada, and Chile. From 2012 to 2018 she was the singer of one of the main professional choirs of the Fundação Brasil-OSESP (São Paulo State Symphony Orchestra Choir).

She has served as a pianist, singer, and children's music instructor in performing arts schools, including early childhood education levels.

Throughout her career, she has always served the Lord in the churches where she has been playing, singing, producing, directing, and conducting musicals for children, teenagers, youth, and adult choirs.
